38. Santa Barbara based artist, KAREN BEZUIDENHOUT, creates paintings that are tapestries of her memories and imagination. She draws all of her inspiration from nature and her extensive travels. Working mostly in acrylic and oil stick, Karen's palette reflects the colours of her native South Africa, and the coastal hues of her California life. Visit www.karenbezuidenhoutart.com and follow @karen_bezuidenhout on Instagram.

39. PADDY COHN is an abstract artist whose sensuous, mysterious explorations into textures, layers and distressed materials reflect a childhood spent in the landscapes of the Caribbean. Paddy's work has been collected, commissioned and displayed in corporate and private collections from the Caribbean to New York to Europe. Visit www.paddycohn.com and follow @paddycohn_art on Instagram to find out more.

40. Contemporary artist VICTORIA CURLING-ERIKSSON creates original landscapes and pattern designs primarily using oil paints. Inspired by the energy yet peacefulness of nature, her works incorporate strong and rich colours that are thoughtfully presented on canvas to depict various horizons. Explore Victoria's reflective works online at www.curling-eriksson.com and follow @victoriace_art on Instagram.

41. LISA BUTTERS is a Pacific Northwest Artist and Photographer who creates a uniquely diverse body of work. Lisa works in a variety of mediums, including encaustic, acrylic, gouache, oils and oil pastels, watercolor, coloured pencils, and charcoal. Pictured is Tulips in Blue Vase, 2021 11 x 14 inches, acrylic on artboard. Visit www.lisabutters.com to find out more and follow @lisa_butters on Instagram.

42. CAROL BOURGONJE is an intuitive abstract expressionist who is based in Cape Town, South Africa. She works in acrylics and oils to explore the dynamism of application occasionally working with texture. Lead by her intuition, her artworks explore her inner journey and navigation of the self, reflecting an internal flow of creativity with a dance of unity between the canvas, paint and the self. Visit www.carolbourgonjeart.com or follow @carol.bourgonje.art on Instagram to see more.

43. EVA WIRÉN is a visual artist from the west coast in Sweden. She is known for her large colourful abstract paintings. She has exhibited through invitations in a number of countries in Europe. She is also represented in homes in Canada and the USA. Visit her website, www.evawiren.com or follow @qenteatelje_evawiren on Instagram.

44. BENJAMIN BOSS is a contemporary abstract expressionist based in the US. Using bold colours and expressive gestures, his beautiful work conveys both a sense of energy and meditative reflection. While abstract, his paintings evoke memories of place and moments of wonder. Visit benjaminboss.com and follow @benjamin.boss.art on Instagram.

45. DMITRY OSKIN is a fine art photographer based in Wiltshire. Many of his pictures are based on natural objects and creatures, but sometimes he uses them to delve into the realm of optical illusion! Dmitry's works have been featured in galleries such as the Lamberty Gallery, Jerome Zodo, and many more. Pictured is 'Zig Zag' 150" x 150". Visit dmitry-oskin.com or follow @dmitryoskinart on Instagram.

46. Layers of molten wax and resin are conduits for capturing reflective light through these luminous paintings and deeply textured abstracts in encaustic multimedia on water stained raw steel. DEBORAH MARTELL is a German-Israeli-American artist who discretely weaves layers of opalescence, crystalline dust and rich colours to infuse life into her one-of-a-kind art. Artist to buyer direct and custom commissions. Visit DeborahMartellArt.com or follow @deborah.martell on Instagram.

47. SHERYL BENJY's art has hidden messages about the universe, positive symbols and affirmations. She specialises in "Goddess Portrait Art", a series of commissioned artworks that allows women to choose symbols, special moments and memories from their lives to be combined into a piece. Pictured is "Into Pieces" 20x20". Visit sherylbenjy.com Instagram: @sherylbenjy_art
